Remarks:

Findings, pages iii, all paragraphs

The significant output of the destination resort will be a desirable addition to the local economies. It will provide planned development vs. the usual poorly planned urban sprawl that will occur instead.

Conclusions, Section 4, page 39

Economic growth is important in the two counties. It is desirable to have it be orderly and well planned. The large-scale resort will provide orderly and substantial growth and should be approved by local governments and citizens.
